

Thank you for your interest in CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) of Collin County. Please find enclosed a CASA information packet and a volunteer application.

The opportunity to serve as a CASA volunteer is one of the most unique community service experiences available. CASA volunteers have the opportunity to “roll up their sleeves” and work one-on-one with abused and neglected children, their families, and the courts. While the enclosed job description may seem overwhelming at first, please keep in mind that many of our CASA volunteers have full-time jobs.

CASA of Collin County offers a complete training schedule to our potential volunteers. After completing the application to volunteer and scheduling a personal interview, an applicant is then enrolled in a thirty hour training course. This course offers workshops ranging from “The Dynamics of Abuse and Neglect,” to “How to Testify in Court”. We are fortunate to have respected, professional members of the community such as District Court Judges, Child Protective Services Supervisors, and Assistant District Attorneys participate in our training. Upon completion of the training and a thorough background check, a volunteer is sworn in as an Officer of the Court and can begin accepting CASA cases.

A benefit to being a CASA volunteer is that almost all of the work can be done in the volunteer’s free time. The majority of our volunteers do work full-time, and can perform their CASA tasks on their own schedule. However, if you do work, you will need to get permission from your employer to attend the occasional court hearing or case staffing. Also, because of the intensive and quality training you will receive, we do ask for a one-year commitment to CASA upon being sworn in as a volunteer.

If you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact me at (972)529-2272. I look forward to receiving your application, and bringing you aboard as a CASA volunteer. Together, we can make a difference...one child at a time.

The next 30-Hour Volunteer Training will be held July 19, 21, 22, 24, 28, and 29. The Saturday class is held 8:30am-4pm and the five evening classes held from 5:30pm-9pm. All days and times of training must be attended. Your application and interview are to be completed prior to training session.

Sincerely,

Dianne McCall, MS

*CASA Volunteers:
Ordinary People Doing Extraordinary things!*

Every year thousands of abused and neglected children are in need of safe, permanent nurturing homes. Too many spend years moving from one temporary home to another. They are more likely than other children to face homelessness, unemployment, even prison as adults.

That's where CASA of Collin County steps in. CASA (Court Appointed Special Advocates) was established in 1991 to make sure the abuse and neglect these children originally suffered at home doesn't continue as abuse and neglect at the hands of the system.

- CASA Volunteer Advocates are ordinary people who are committed to standing up for the "best interests" of an abused or neglected child.
- CASA Volunteer Advocates are thoroughly trained in courtroom procedure, social services, the juvenile justice system, and the special needs of these vulnerable children.
- CASA Volunteer Advocates are appointed by judges to be a voice for these children in court. The result is that a child is placed into a safe, loving home where he or she can thrive.

A Powerful Voice In A Child's Life

Child Abuse and neglect is a problem of such magnitude and complexity that cooperation between the public and private sectors is essential if it is to be remediated.

Startling Statistics

- Child abuse is the number one killer of pre-school children.
- Three Children die from child abuse every day
- More than 20% of the children CASA serves are sexual abuse victims.
- Many are children too young to speak up for themselves. More than 37% are 5 years old or younger.
- More than 600 Collin County children, all victims of severe abuse, neglect, abandonment, or family violence, will need a CASA Volunteer Advocate this year

With the constant support, guidance, and supervision of the professional staff at CASA, volunteers from all walks of life, ages, and ethnic groups act a court appointed advocates for abused and neglected children.

CASA Volunteer Advocates serve as the court's eyes and ears to help the judge make an informed, timely decision in the child's best interests.
